Education Committee

Mandate

The Commissioner has delegated to the SLA the following duties: (i) to receive and disseminate to the Membership information relating to surplus line insurance; (ii) to educate the Membership about the surplus line law and the regulations pertaining thereto; and (iii) to perform any specific educational activities that the Commissioner reasonably may request (Cal. Ins. Code § 1780.56(a)(7)).

Purpose

The Education Committee provides and promotes detailed and sophisticated ethical and professional educational courses to the SLA Membership in order to expand their knowledge and expertise in servicing consumers.

The Education Committee develops courses and course materials that focus upon the surplus line laws, current legislative or regulatory issues or developments that affect the surplus line industry, and current events within the insurance industry that impact upon the surplus line market or the brokerage community generally.

The Education Committee attempts to provide the most qualified and experienced instructors to meet the needs of all required courses.
